

MSAR REAL ESTATE INSTITUTE

All new members must complete a mandatory Orientation. All members must attend a Quadrennial Ethics class every four years after Orientation. Take advantage of this opportunity to do both in one day!

If you haven't yet fulfilled these requirements, this is a perfect opportunity. If you are a new agent and need both, be here at 9:00 a.m. If you need Quadrennial Ethics, be here at 9:45 a.m. and get 3 hours CE credit.

"Increasing the level of professionalism by meeting all real estate needs"

Ethics in Real Estate

	Description Effective January 1, 2001 through December 31, 2004, and for successive four year periods thereafter, REALTORS® are required to complete quadrennial ethics training of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. REALTORS® completing such training during any four year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training in respect of this requirement as a requirement of membership in any other board or association.
Judge Parker

Instructor Judge has spent countless hours training/instructing thousands of real estate professionals. He has also been responsible for creating and implementing several new continuing education programs for REALTORS®. Judge's other professional memberships include the Georgia Association of REALTORS®, National Association of REALTORS® and the Georgia Real Estate Education Association.

MSAR Members pay only $25. Non-members pay $30.
